cello philharmonia

June 4th, 2020 - perhaps more than any other instrument the cello sound can create a melancholy mood its deep tenor voice can be further enhanced by a broad vibrato which on other instruments might sound ridiculous with its particularly wide range and powerful sound it can one minute be playing a bass line and the next a melody that is high enough for the rest of the orchestra to move underneath'
